

Product Code . LSK-FM-10440

Notched Weirs

Description

The apparatus includes a holder and three standard notches, one rectangular and two “V” notch.

The notch weir set works over a range of flows to allow experiments that show the relationship between flow and head and how the weirs can be used to measure flow.

It also includes an advanced set of notches, Cipoletti (trapezoidal) and a notch for more experiments.